

GEMMA
coffee table

The coffee tables of GEMMA collection are made in scagliola Craquelé, an artistic finish that brings us back to the charm of ancient paintings. The manual application enhances the craftsmanship that distinguishes our product. Available with round top, divided in two elements, combined to form different arrangements to give a sense of movement to the environment or simply with a rectangular top. Each top is supported by steel legs.

In the images Gemma round coffee table features a scagliola craquelé finish ref. C.51 and chrome steel legs
