

L' ULIVO
art work

“The Olive” has always been a source of inspiration in the art world. A strong symbol of regeneration, this tree is particularly meaningful for the artist since it leads back to the artist’s family olive grove and it is still visible from the window to this day. A strong tree with a majestic trunk it is perfect for a texturised interpretation in scagliola. The gilded reflections on the olives and silver leaf background make it unique and impressive. The Olive Tree is a commissioned limited edition handmade art work Introduced to the furniture world as a wall decoration and vertical curtains such as a partition for environments. Each art work is signed by the artist.

In the pictures, the Ulivo artwork cm. 200x187 in texturised scagliola on a silver leaf background.
